"Bringing Teachers together, keeping them together and guiding them to work together"

The Uganda Moslem and Christian Teachers' Dialogue is an initiative of the Uganda Moral Re-Armament Chapter (Initiatives of Change – iofc) affiliated to the International Initiatives of Change Association (Iofc) which was founded in 1938. It is an NGO in special consultative status with Economic and Social Council of the UN (ECOSOC) and has participatory status at the Council of Europe in Strasbourg. It is active in inter-religious relations and in the struggle for the rights for indigenous people.

The Uganda Moslem and Christian Teachers' Dialogue has organized the International Teacher's Dialogue Summit to take place from the 2nd – 6th June, 2011 at Jinja Busoga Town, on the Uganda-Kenya Highway, to which you are cordially invited.

Distinguished teachers from UK, USA, Middle East, Nigeria, Egypt and other parts of the world will share their experiences, scholars involved in developing their Education Systems and companies with products and services that help teachers, have been invited and will have the opportunity to have face to face interaction with those who are in need of their services and products.
